

III. SUMMARY:

NEWS COVERAGE

Coverage of the College Singers from Cameroon by television, radio, and the press in Washington, D.C. was outstanding in quality as well as quantity. The news summary follows with attached clippings.

A. Television and Radio Coverage:

- * Live performance Nov. 25 on "Harambee", daily variety show on WTOP-TV (CBS affiliate in Washington, D.C.)
- * WTOP-TV 1:00 p.m. news on Nov. 25 included an excerpt of the Singers' music and a second announcement of their performance.
- * WRC-TV (NBC affiliate in Washington, D.C.) ran film of the Senate Rotunda performance on 6:00 p.m. news, Nov. 25.
- * Several Washington, D.C. radio stations carried public service announcements of the Tuesday evening concert.

B. Press Coverage:

- * Washington Evening Star: Picture and article (Nov. 22) by William Willoughby, Religion Editor.
- * Washington Evening Star: Picture (Nov. 25) of Ambassador Owono's reception.
- * Washington Post: Large picture of Rotunda performance, first page, second section, Nov. 26.
- * United States Information Agency and Voice of America: Representatives took pictures, conducted interviews with Singers, and taped music for Topic Magazine, overseas articles and broadcasts.
- * Christianity Today Magazine: Short article (Dec. 19, 1969).